Sketch:

Description:

Ruins of 8 tabby buildings. Seven lie between the Haig's Point Lighthouse (site of earlier plantation owner's residence) and the present clubhouse; the eighth is a good distance away, at the west (rear) side of the clubhouse. Just east of the clubhouse are the two most complete structures, which retain 6' wall sections and end wall firebox with chimney remnants. The three easternmost retain the least structural material, consisting of a low section of one (east) end wall, which appears to have been a chimney wall at each. The remnant west of the clubhouse is similar to these three.
